These bead craft articles include dozens of fun bead crafts for kids. Help your child learn how to make pearl jewellery and other decorative crafts. Ad ad Lisa Yang Hand chains are a trend that comes and goes, but there's always room for one in your jewelry box. This is very delicate, made with a thin chain and only a few, but it makes a big statement. Basically, making a hand chain simply creates a coordinating bracelet and ring with a chain, and then adds a beaded connector between the two. It's a great design and you can use your creativity to customize it for any host or situation. We'll beat cancer faster. Add to your Beads of Hope™ collection with this pink 'Believe'. Silver trim Nickel Free This site is not available in your country Use loom weaving techniques with leather to make a trendy bracelet Lisa Yang Bead and leather wrap bracelets are incredibly versatile and popular to make. It's easy to see why. The design is simple, but it has endless combinations. Make it your own by changing the color of the leather cord, changing the length of the bracelet (and thus the number of bracelet wrappers around the wrist) as well as the types, colors and sizes of dental children. This bracelet uses loom weaving technology, but you don't need looms to start making these bracelets. Lisa Yang Beaded tassels take a little patience, but when you get the basics down, there are so many options. This project will show you the basics of how to join multiple tassel threads, use a plug at the end of the tassels, and use cones to cover the top of the tassels. Then it's up to you whether you want the tassels to be simple or full. Looking for pearl rail patterns? What about the next wide pink and white pearl pearl bracelet?
